Foreword

Classes, club meetings, chapel programs, and athletic activities all make up a day just as seconds, minutes, and hours compose a day. A school day consists of joys, honors, failures, and achievements. Without these penetrating emotions our days at school would hold no impressive meaning. We learn to accept responsibility, to co-operate with our fellow classmates, and to absorb beneficial knowledge through our expressions at school. When we leave these hallowed halls of Henderson High we carry with us intangible assets.

The Days Hold For Us . . .

In the morning, students use the homeroom to make their plans for the day ahead.

Work, Play, Excitement

Our weekly chapel program provides restful entertainment to break the monotony of the daily routine.

An evening football game brings tense excitement to the avid fans of the bulldogs.

With the impatient ringing of the morning bell, our daily activities begin.

The halls are crowded with students, old and new, eager for the day to begin. If you should walk through the halls between classes, you would see many students catching up on the latest gossip, and others just strolling along. When the incessant ringing of the warning bell begins, there is a sudden rush to class.

All of this makes up a day in the life of a student of Henderson High School.

Our share

Students await the ringing of the morning bell, with wondering thoughts of the activities of the day.

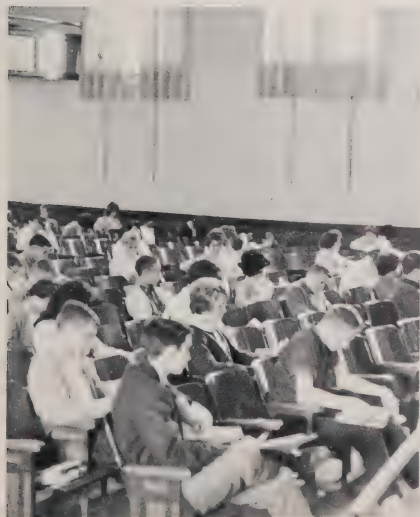

The school store provides us with the supplies we need.

Dedication

A day in the life of Henderson High School would not be complete without the presence of a teacher dear to us all. Whenever there is a problem that needs to be solved, she is always near at hand and willing to help. As a teacher, she is highly devoted to her work. As a friend, she is helpful and understanding. Her outgoing personality brightens the hall, and her warm smile infects everyone she meets.

She has given more than her share of time in teaching English courses at Henderson High. Under her guidance, English has become a subject of widening interest and enjoyment. The Pep Pac Staff has been greatly benefited by the unceasing aid of this person. Thus we, the Pep Pac Staff, humbly dedicate this, the 1964 Pep Pac, to our sponsor, Miss Elaine Pegram.

Administration

Mr. W. D. Payne
Superintendent of Henderson City Schools

The city school board for 1963-1964 was under the direction of Mr. O. H. Gwynn. To strive for a better relationship between the city schools was the goal for the past year. The school system ran so smoothly only because of the never-failing help of the school board.

Henderson City School Board:

Mr. F. D. Kesler
Principal of Henderson High School

Direct supervisor for Henderson High School is Principal F. D. Kesler. His leadership and efficiency are respected by all. With unceasing devotion to our school, Mrs. Ethel Knott works beside him faithfully. Her carefully prepared records are a crowning glory to our school. One girl each period assists her in the office running errands and answering the phone.

Mrs. Ethel Knott
School Secretary

Alice Marie Harris, Janice Gibson, Carmen Woodall, Martha Nelson, and Danna Allen aid Mrs. Knott in the office during their study hall.

Mr. Thomas Roberts
Guidance Counselor

The guidance program at Henderson High School offers many services to both students and parents this year. The effectiveness of the program provides benefits in helping the students choose their courses. Mr. Thomas Roberts proves to be a priceless asset to the students in aiding them with their plans for the future. He presents the information to them in such a way that each student comes to know himself and recognizes his abilities and talents. One girl assists Mr. Roberts each period of the day.

Mrs. Mabel Young
Dean of Girls

Mr. Robert Harrison
Dean of Boys

The precise organization of the students is due to the Dean of Boys, Mr. Bob Harrison, and to the Dean of Girls, Mrs. Mabel Young. They look into the absentees, and grant class permits after excuses have been brought in. They are assisted each period by girls who take up the roll slips from each room.

Patricia Lovings and Linda Long represent the Library Council by collecting absentee slips.

New English classes

Juniors in Miss Pegram's classes concentrate on American Authors.

Miss Stanton instructs her Seniors in the study of English Literature.

In the regular English classes at Henderson High School, theme writing and literature are being used to prepare all students for the future. Each class concentrates on its own particular type of literature. Juniors have their American writers while the Seniors study mainly about the famous authors of England.

In addition to the regular English classes, an entirely new course has been developed this year. Juniors and Seniors who have done well in English have been put in Mrs. Glover's classes, which are similar to Freshman college courses, in order to further develop their English abilities.

Attentive Seniors listen to a fascinating discussion in Mrs. Glover's special English IV class.

developed at H.H.S.

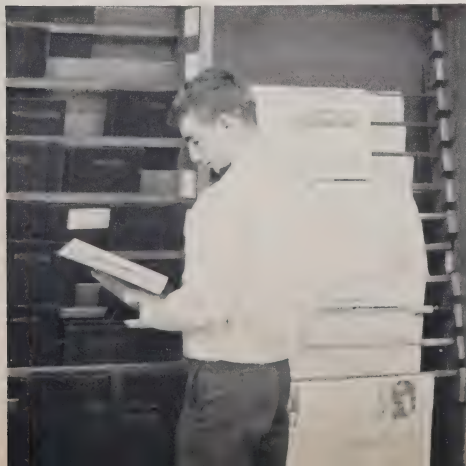

The library offers students a chance to study and read in a quiet atmosphere.

An important source of information for every student at Henderson High is the library. It offers the students an atmosphere suitable for thought and research. For the Sophomores the library provides information for their special reports on American and English authors. The Juniors and Seniors use the library to benefit them in their theme-writing and term papers. Thus the library proves to be a very valuable asset to the students. There they are able to absorb much skill in literature and grammar.

Richard Gooch takes advantage of the Library's magazines.

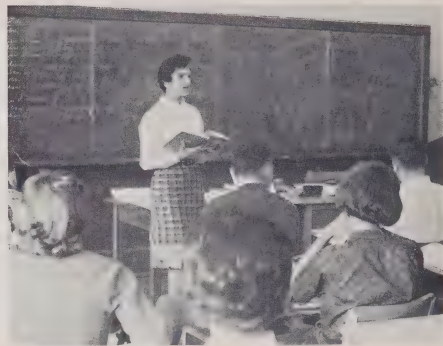

Woody Phillips and Melinda Folger use the references offered by the library.

Spanish increases variety

Students find French I a challenge.

Spanish I is the newest addition to our H.H.S. curriculum.

In order to increase the variety of offered languages, Spanish I has been added to the curriculum this year. With the aid of Mrs. House, students learn to appreciate and enjoy this new addition to our language department.

Each year the enrollment in the French classes increases. Not only are there French I and II classes, but a few energetic students are enrolled in a French III class. These students center their study on the translation of French history into English.

The study of Latin is another course that gives the students a chance to increase his knowledge of early history. First year Latin students learn grammar and vocabulary while the second year students center their interest on translation.

All these, Spanish, French, and Latin, add to the variety of subjects offered at H.H.S.

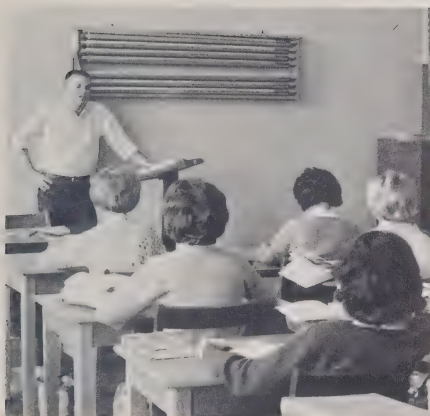

Miss Hughes's Latin I students tediously drill on verbs.

Eight ambitious students tackle French III.

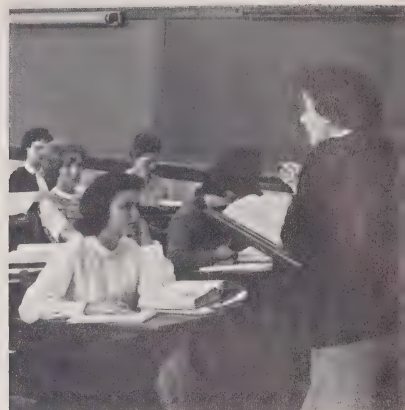

of offered languages

Coach Boykin's world history students study man's progress through the ages.

The students who are interested in the past, the social studies courses at H.H.S. offer a means of satisfying their curious minds. Social studies teaches them the significance of historical events and how they are the means by which we build our civilization today. It also instructs the students in the importance of the past as related to the future.

In the Civics classes, Mrs. Murphy explains the basic principles of our government.

Mrs. Murphy's U.S. history students study the history and government of our country.

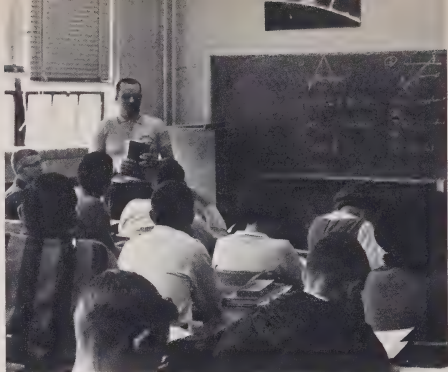

The social studies courses strive for several things during the course of the year. They try to give a knowledge of the past in order to better understand the present. These courses also strive to give the students a more broad-minded view of the world. Most important they help the students to make intelligent decisions when they accept the responsibilities of citizenship.

In the problems of democracy classes, the students learn to cope with the problems that they will soon have to face as future citizens.

Students struggle over equations in Algebra I.

Coach Stephenson's students are instructed in the study of geometry.

Concentration and thought

The math courses prepare students for college or for the business profession they are seeking. Algebra, geometry, and trigonometry are for the college-minded students. General math and business arithmetic are preparations for the future business leaders.

This year there is no second year Algebra class. Instead, plane geometry is being offered to students during their Sophomore year so that they may be more prepared for Algebra II during their Junior year. To accommodate all the Juniors who have already had Algebra II, plus the Sophomores who are taking geometry this year, eight classes of plane geometry have been set up.

Students listen attentively as Mr. Jones explains a problem in college algebra.

General math explores many phases of mathematics.

Chemistry is a subject requiring much thought and concentration.

Biology students find a fascinating world under the microscope.

are required for Math and Science

The science courses offered at Henderson High enable the students to consider the possibility of science as a career. Freshmen receive basic information of science by taking general science. Sophomores take biology to learn of the complicated systems of plant and animal life. They see for themselves the internal structure of earthworms, crayfish, and starfish. Juniors and seniors with the desire to learn about the changes of the composition of matter take chemistry. Seniors wishing to learn about the physical changes of matter choose physics.

All of the students taking science had the opportunity to enter the science fair. Here they could demonstrate their knowledge of science gained from practical skill and classroom concentration.

The increased enrollment and interest in the science classes at H.H.S. is evidence of the growing importance of science in the schools today.

Students in Mr. Knight's General Science classes are faced with the basic elements of science.

Physics presents many difficult problems for students to solve.

Under the experienced eye of Mrs. Eva Macon, girls gain valuable information about the art of homemaking. The home economics students take part in cooking, sewing, interior decorating, and other courses that are needed in order to develop a successful homemaker. One of the major projects for the school year is that of child care. Home economics enables the young girl to acquire knowledge that will make her become an efficient house-wife in her own home.

In preparation for future, Students

Mrs. Ralph Mason supervises her D.E. Students.

Distributive Education prepares students for their future professions. In the classroom, the students are instructed in the ways in which they can most effectively carry out their various jobs. Outside of the classroom each of these boys and girls has a job. In this way they are able to put into practice the knowledge they gained in the classroom.

Shorthand Students are required to attain 100 words per minute.

Bookkeeping teaches students how to keep accurate records of business transactions.

take courses in Home Ec. and Business.

The commercial courses at Henderson High prepare the students for future positions in the business world. Typing demands a maximum amount of finger work and fast thinking in order to fulfill the sixty words a minute requirement. Equally as important are bookkeeping and shorthand. In bookkeeping students learn to keep a systematic record of business transactions. They also learn important facts about accurate accounting and comprehension of figures. Classes in shorthand enable students to take dictation quicker and more efficiently by using symbols for words.

Fast fingerwork and quick thinking are required for Typing I.

Mathematics required for the business profession are obtained in business arithmetic classes.

Physical Education and Band

Girls are checked for weight and height in Mrs. Lively's P.E. class.

Girls discuss a rule during an energetic game of basketball.

Physical education gives the students a chance to have a change in the daily school routine. On alternate days the boys and girls have use of the gym. There they can participate in basketball, volleyball, pingpong, and calisthenics. On warm days they are allowed to go outside to play soccer, speedball, and softball.

In the classroom, the range of study varies from that of proper food to that of first aid. Physical Education Students are also being instructed in the correct operation and understanding of an automobile. This is being done to prepare students for that "big day" when they can finally get their license.

By both classroom study and actual participation in sports, these boys and girls fully develop their character and sportsmanship.

Boys taking P.E. engage in an enthusiastic game of basketball.

Band practice is a tedious but rewarding work.

Our school life would not be complete without the contributions of the Henderson High School Band. For twenty-seven years Mr. W. T. Hearne Jr. has faithfully directed the band. During football season the band participates in parades and half-time activities at the games. After football season until the end of the year the band diligently prepares concert music for the Christmas and spring concerts. One of the most important activities of the band is to participate yearly in the state contest at Greensboro, N. C. The band helps to develop music appreciation among the students.

The band plays a welcome as our football players come onto the field.

Our high-stepping majorettes lead our band in the parades through town.

National Honor Society

Mrs. Margaret Glover
Sponsor

Character, service, leadership, and scholarship are four basic requirements for membership in the National Honor Society. Students, who are chosen by the faculty on the basis of these virtues, are tapped into this society each year at the first of the spring. Fifteen percent of the Junior class and five percent of the Sophomore class compose the membership of this organization.

In the 1963-1964 school year the John T. Alderman chapter of the National Honor Society established committees to plan the annual projects. The principal aim of the club is to inspire the members to appreciate the culture of our background.

A Workshop of Parliamentary procedures was held to inform the officers of organizations how to hold effective club and class meetings. The impressive tapping ceremony was certainly one of the highlights of the school year and serves as a goal for outstanding students.

Marshals

Students with the highest scholastic averages in the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes are announced at the end of each year as marshals for the graduation exercises. There are four marshals from the Freshman class, four from the Sophomore class, and six from the Junior class. The Chief and Assistant-Chief are the two Juniors with the highest averages.

White dresses and sport coats decorated with blue and white badges distinguish the marshals, as they serve as ushers at Class Night, the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the Graduation Exercises. It is truly an honor to hold such a position as this. In Henderson High School's busy schedule for extra-curricular activities, second attention is often given to studies. To keep one's scholastic standards high is, therefore, a great challenge to students.

Quill and Scroll

Meritorious work on the school publications is the main qualification for which students are chosen for membership in the Quill and Scroll, the international honor society of high school journalists. The advisors of the PEP PAC and THE BULLDOG select the students on the basis of scholarship and leadership. The Quill and Scroll at Henderson High School encourages individual achievement in publications. Each member has worked two years with either the business or editorial groups of the annual or the newspaper staff.

French Honor Society

The French Honor Society is an organization designed to promote higher standards of scholarship, to stimulate interest in the study of French, and to reward higher scholastic attainments. This society is composed of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who are taking either French II or French III. Members of the French classes who have an "A" average or above are voted on by all the French classes. Upon election, candidates are awarded certificates of membership in the French Honor Society and receive the privilege of ordering the emblem. At Henderson High School this organization is honorary, meaning that it is inactive as to projects and meetings.

Student Council

The Student Council is the most decisive and active organization at Henderson High School. As the governmental organization it introduces the student body to the rules of parliamentary procedure. The students are a very important part of the council as two people from each homeroom represent their point of view. They report to their homeroom developments of the meetings and bring back suggestions and ideas.

Some of the projects which the Student Council undertook this year were Homecoming, School Spirit Week, Sadie Hawkins Week, publication of the BLUE AND WHITE, Religious Emphasis Week, chapel programs, and College Career Night. The sponsor this year as before was Mr. Harold House.

The Building and Grounds Committee varnished all seats in the auditorium. Members are Parrish, Craven, Peoples, Lewis, Pleasants, Braswell and Stone.

The French Club

The French Council members are Scripture, Crocker, Rose, Buchanan, Norman, Pergerson, Perry, Coghill, Ayscue, Chappell, Tyson, Nowell, Short, and Kesler.

Students taking French I, II, or III find the French Club interesting and informative. The club, led by the officers and French Council, undertook several projects throughout the year. The council is composed of one representative from each French class. Meetings were held throughout the year to discuss plans of the club.

During Christmas the French club chose a needy family and brought food, clothing, and other items of importance for them. Sponsors for the French Club this year are Miss Frances Kittrell and Miss Kathleen Priest.

Future Teachers of America

SEATED: President Elaine Phillips; Vice-President Bobbie Sutton; STANDING: Secretary Susan Norman; Treasurer Delores Crocker; Sponsor Mrs. Ben Allen.

The Future Teachers of America works toward its goal of introducing the teaching field to those who wish to prepare for a career in teaching. It acquaints the students with the objectives and methods of teaching in all degrees. Members gain experience and valuable information as a result of their work.

In October the F. T. A. sent several members as candidates for office to the state convention at Durham. During American Education week the students substituted for the teachers gaining good experience. They also presented a chapel program.

Sponsor and advisor of the F. T. A. is Mrs. Dorothy Allen. She is a source of help and inspiration to the members of the F. T. A.

Future Homemakers of America

The F.H.A. officers are Riggsbee, Historian; Harris, Secretary; Williams, Vice President; and Dunn, President.

The members of the Future Homemakers of America work toward the accomplishment of one main goal among others: to gain a secure knowledge of homemaking so as to build homes in the future where security, love, and experience abide.

The members of the F.H.A. studied several things during the year. They increased in knowledge in the necessities and requirements of a household. Attentive listening and concentration brought them many rewards as they prepared for the future.

ARE YOU A GOOD BRANCH ON YOUR FAMILY?

Students enrolled in business subjects are eligible for membership in the Future Business Leaders of America. The FBLA prepares students for a vocation in the field of business in such a way that they will be capable of becoming able leaders in their particular field. Since the FBLA is a national organization, our Henderson High School Club is able to meet and work along with other student groups in the state and nation.

This year a spelling bee became the main project of the FBLA. Each member had a list of 151 words he had to learn. The first word to be misspelled was an ever present error, "all right."

Latin Club

Slaves Allen Terry and Maria Jenkins assisted Betsy Marrow (Cleopatra) and Larry Taylor (Caesar) at the annual banquet.

The Latin Club offers a better understanding of the Latin language and classical learning to all of those students taking or completing Latin I or II. As in the past years, the Latin Club was advised by Miss Elizabeth Hughes who inspired the students as an example of one who is a master of the Classical Latin.

The main project of the year was to sponsor the annual banquet. There the new members were inducted as slaves, and previous slaves became masters.

During the year the members worked to learn Latin songs. Then at a chapel program at Christmas they sang them for the students.

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Ralph Mason, Sponsor; Choplin, Woodlief, Mitchell, Creager, Dunn, Long, Lovings, Carlyle, Orr, Dickerson, Dunn, King, Maddox, Clopton, Clark, Adcox. The members of the Distributive Education Club use the knowledge that they gain in school to better handle their part-time jobs after school. This plan is very efficient in training these students for a future business career. In the classroom these students learn the best ways to handle their various jobs so that they may be a profit to both themselves and their employer.

Through the Distributive Education Club, boys and girls can plan their future while they are still gaining experience in school. The club's principle aims are the following: to cultivate and exchange each other's ideas, to make each member capable of handling the position of leadership in the profession in which he intends to work, and to make each D. E. member a better citizen.

Distributive Education students entertain their employers each year at their Bosses' Banquet. Here the D. E. members get a chance to become better acquainted with their employers.

The Distributive Education Club officers for 1963-64 were President William Dickerson; Vice-President Jerry Nelson; Secretary Polly Dickerson; Treasurer, Andrew Saunders.

Distributive Education Club

This year the Distributive Education classes had a new home.

The 1963-64 officers of the G.A.A. were President Ruth Hight, Vice-President Elaine Phillips, Secretary Nora Lynn Finch, Treasurer Kay Satterwhite and Point Recorder Diane Ray.

Engaging in G.A.A. sports activities are Murray, Stewart, Jenkins, Gee, Hankel, Edwards, Ronner, Stephenson, and Pearce.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Since any girl that obtains 25 points can become a member of the Girls' Athletic Association, it has become one of the largest clubs at Henderson High School. Girls earn these points by going on hikes, bowling, playing volley ball, and other activities.

The Girls' Athletic Association gives girls who are not able to play on a varsity team a chance to take part in sports that they enjoy. These girls have a basketball tournament of their own each year. They also form teams and have volley ball matches after school. Bowling is still another sport that the G. A. A. encourages. Competition in these various sports builds up a spirit of sportsmanship and leadership.

Each year in the spring some of Henderson's G. A. A. members attend the State playday in Greensboro, North Carolina. Here they participate in ping pong, volley ball, bowling, tennis, relay races, and golf.

The Monogram Club

Monogram Club members Hughes, Kallman, and Edwards demonstrate to new members how to properly paint a goal-post.

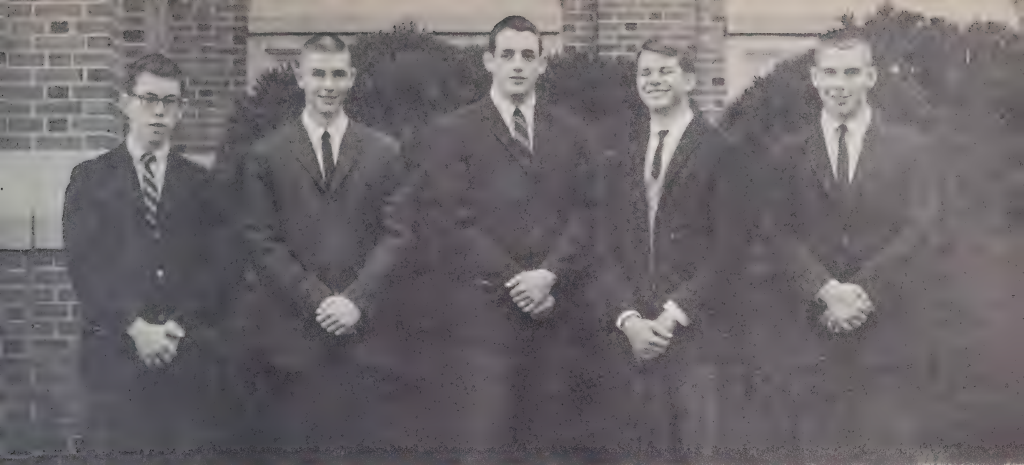

The Monogram Club is an organization whose membership is coveted by those who wish to attain high athletic standards. The Monogram Club helps to promote high athletic standards by advocating true sportsmanship. It also promotes a deeper sense of loyalty among better men. The members, students who earn their letter in a varsity sport, work to encourage sportsmanship and loyalty.

An annual project of the club is the student-faculty basketball game. It is very popular and well attended by all.

In a chapel program those who have earned their letter are presented with sweaters and therefore become members. Coach Wade Stevenson is advisor.

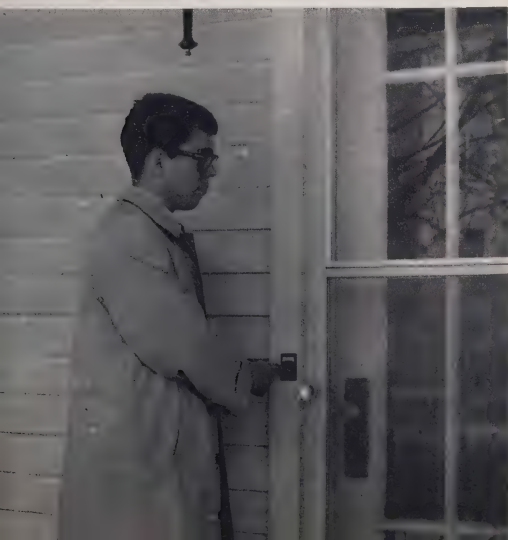

Key Club Members are Finch, Gay, Leathers, and Parham. SECOND ROW: Whitmore, Daniel, Pergerson, and Lassiter. THIRD ROW: Clayton, Jackson, Southerland, W. Edwards, and Ayscue. FOURTH ROW: Newman, Horner, McDade, and Phillips. FIFTH ROW: A. Edwards, Moss, and Reavis.

The Key Club's Officers are President Phil Finch, Vice President Benny Gay, Secretary Gordon Leathers, Treasurer Malone Parham and Lieutenant Governor of the Carolinas District Pat Sellars.

Key Club

President Phil Finch is shown collecting for the Cancer Fund.

The Key Club is composed of outstanding boys from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. These boys are elected each year by the other club members on the basis of scholastic average, participation in school activities, and character. This club, which is an international organization is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. This year the club is planning a Key Club--Kiwanis Club banquet. One of the annual projects of the Key Club is to provide food for a needy family at Christmas.

The field of science is further explored by the members of the Futurian Club through lectures and personal tours, its members greatly increase their knowledge as well as widen their varied interests in the scientific field.

The Science Fair is the major project of the Futurian Club each year. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Martha Howes the Science Fair gives students a chance to display and win recognition for their work relating to science.

The Futurian officers are Scott Harris, President; Chip Haddock, Vice President; Martha Fox, Secretary-Treasurer; and Alex Cooper, Reporter.

Debating Team

Debating Team officers are Glenn Davis, President; and Howard Rubin, Vice President.

The Debating Team is an organization which requires effort and talent. It encourages the members to learn the art of self-expression as well as that of fact. It also teaches the students how to think rapidly and improve their speaking abilities. The rewards of this club are fulfilling and satisfying.

The Debating Team works on several speech projects during the year. They are given a chance to show their work in an annual debate in assembly when they present affirmative and negative views.

Library Council

President Larry Parrish discusses activities with the sponsor Mrs. Young.

The members of the Library Council aid Mrs. Young in her work in the library. The members gain valuable experience in library science while they assist other students in the library. Repairing books is a never-ending task of these diligent workers. The bulletin board is kept attractive and up to date by the Library Council members also. Without the service of these students the whole school would be at a loss since they render such valuable service to our entire school.

Music Council

Each year students from all four classes who are interested in music, petition for membership on the Music Council. After careful consideration the new members are announced by the officers. The Music Council's primary purpose is to encourage music appreciation and participation. It also aids the band in making all major decisions concerning the band and music in the entire school. Possible band trips are one of the main considerations of the Music Council each year.

Intra-Club Council

A relatively new, yet very important, addition to the school curriculum is the Intra-Club Council. It is composed of the officers of the student council, the president of each club, and the president of each class. The chief objective of this club is to distribute the magazine sale money to individual organizations to fulfill their financial needs. In the future it is hoped that the Intra-Club Council can operate as a club with more projects.

Composed of 114 members the Henderson High School Band is a great asset to the school. The band performs in parades on afternoons preceding a home football game. It also displays its skill at several concerts during the year. The Christmas Concert was held December 12, 1963, and it proved to be one of the best ever.

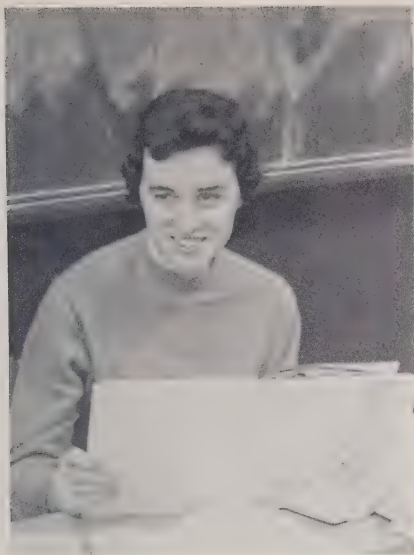

On December 14, 1963, the band held its annual Christmas dance. For this occasion the band-room was elaborately decorated in addition to its customary Christmas tree. A combo, which was a new addition to the dance, provided the band members with entertainment during the evening.

Janice Grissom, a first-year Spanish student, sang "A Belen Marchaba." This song is a religious, a Christmas carol, which Spanish-speaking people have sung for centuries. Hayden Long, Katherine Teiser, Marietta Short, and Rebecca Oakley sang a Spanish Christmas song, "The Latin Club sang 'Silent Night' and 'Adeste Fideles.' Citizenship Classes Hold Reception To Honor Riggsbee, Brost, Hoyle Tuesday morning, November 25, Mrs. Mary Murphy's civics classes held a social hour honoring the naturalized United States citizens who live in Vance County. Among those invited were Mrs. John T. Hoyle, whose native country is Germany; Mrs. Daniel Brost, who is in the process of obtaining American citizenship after moving here from France; and Mrs. Wade Riggsbee, whose native country is Australia.

The guests talked on the value of citizenship, and the meaning and process of obtaining citizenship was stressed. The high esteem in which these guests held American citizenship much impressed the civics students.

The speakers described the rights and privileges of naturalized citizens. The students listened with attention as speakers told of the differences between their country and America. Mrs. Riggsbee said that in Australia voting is compulsory, and a license must be obtained in order to watch television or listen to the radio.

After the speakers' comments, the classes served refreshments.

New Feature In Annual Concert

The Henderson High School Band presented its annual Christmas Concert on December 12 in the school auditorium.

Featured during the evening were guest soloists — Harvorn Hight, who sang "The First Noel," and Rebecca Oakley, who sang "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks." After the solos were sung, Mr. Hight and Miss Oakley sang a medley of songs, including "Silent Night" and "Angels We Have Heard on High."

During the concert, the band rendered four marches of John Philip Sousa, who was known as "The March King."

Assisting in serving refreshments were Shirley Aycock, Elaine Harris, Kaye Rawles, and Joan Stallings. Additional guests attending the tea were Mrs. Eva Macon, home economics teacher, and Mr. F. D. Kesler, principal. At the close of the program, small gifts were presented to each guest.

Students, Band Represent School In Christmas Observance Parade

Henderson's annual Christmas parade was held at 6:30, Monday night, December 2. Twenty-eight entries were on hand for an unusually fabulous parade.

The sides of Garnett Street were lined with young and old alike, eagerly awaiting the appearance of Santa Claus.

Henderson High School was very well represented both by its band and a large group of boys and girls who adorned many of the beautiful floats. On the New and Used Car Dealers float were Anne Porter, Emily Holden, and Hayden Legg. Sandra Warren, Shirley Jones, and Shirley's sister Sylvia, were representing Colonial Stores, and Light Company.

Kitty Crews, Andy Stokes, Becky Edwards, Aubrey Lockemy, and

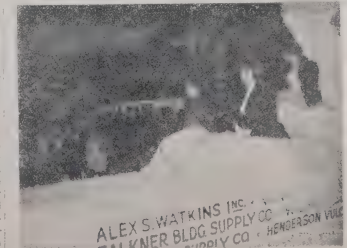

Linda Pearce were dressed as choir members on the Furniture Dealers float. Tempe Southerland, Sharon Perry, Bagley Wardell, and Paul Johnson were "dittin' pretty" on the float of the Vance County Oil Dealers, Wilman Electric Company, Henderson Volunteer Company, and the Building Suppliers boasted having Barbara Male, Margaret Burwell, and Olivia Watkins on their float. Susan Scripps, Kathy Rose, and Susan Medlin were all smiles on the Henderson Drug Store float. On the float from "Home" Stores were Betty McMonery, Mary Perry, and Pam McDade.

In addition to the numerous floats, there were cars, fire trucks, pony carts, bands, a callopie, skaters, and Go-Karts.

Features

Features that occur throughout the school year at Henderson High School help to shape the year into one of excitement and enjoyment.

The week of Homecoming brings with it many hours of hard work, but in the end everyone is fully rewarded. Next comes Stunt Night in which all students have a chance to display their talent. Valentine's Day is celebrated at our school by the crowning of the Intra Club Council Sweetheart. Spirit during the basketball season is brought forth from all the students as School Spirit Week goes into full swing. Sadie Hawkins Week is still another time in which all the students can forget their school worries and concentrate only on having fun.

Preparation for the future is something that all progressive students should keep in mind. College Night and Religious Emphasis Week are held each year for this purpose. During College Night students gain valuable information about the colleges of their choice. Religious Emphasis Week is designed to impress the importance of religion to all the H. H. S. students.

Pep Pac Court

The election of Miss Pep Pac is one of the most exciting events of the school year. One girl is nominated from each homeroom to compete for the title of Miss Pep Pac and her court. After all the names of the nominees have been collected in a list, each student votes for a girl from each class. Miss Pep Pac is the girl receiving the largest number of votes. Of the remaining girls, the court is composed of the highest in each class. We are proud to crown our 1964 Miss Pep Pac as Anne Squires.

“Autumn Leaves”

Tri-captain Jimmy Daniel crowns Susan Medlin as 1963 Homecoming Queen.

The football season was climaxed with the arrival of Homecoming which took place on November 1, 1963. Martha Fox, Betsy Marrow, and Danny Hughes headed the Student Council committee for this event. In the chapel program, activities centered around the theme "Autumn Leaves". Susan Medlin was truly surprised when David Hoyle, master of ceremonies, crowned her as Homecoming Queen.

During the parade, as float after float passed, excitement mounted. The Queen and her Court were presented at the game as the band rendered the theme song.

After the game a dance was held in the gym to honor the selected Queen and Court.

Intra-Club Sweetheart of 1964

This year, as each year, the selection of an Intra-Club Sweetheart was a highlight of the year. Making its debut this year, it was looked forward to with enthusiasm this year. Each club and organization of the school selects one girl to compete for the crown. The total number of girls is narrowed to four finalists by members of the faculty. Some senior citizens of Henderson choose the sweetheart from these four. She is selected on the basis of character and service.

During a chapel program on Valentine's Day, February 14, the Sweetheart was crowned. Surprised and happy, she accepted a gift characteristic of Valentine's Day.

The Junior Class of Henderson High School presented "Some Enchanted Evening" as the theme of the 1963 Junior-Senior Prom. The Prom was presented to the Seniors on May 3, 1963 from 9:00 to 12:00 with entertainment by "The Plaids." Guests also enjoyed a performance of Southern Pavan offered by the Sophomore waiters and waitresses. The Southern Beaux were Douglas Clayton, Gordon Leathers, Randy Mills, Don Putman, Danny Pulley, Richard Southerland. The Southern Belles were Annette Hancock, Nancy Pinnell, Pam Perry, Carmen Woodall, Sue Ervin, and Susan Taylor.

The gymnasium was graced with large beautiful magnolia trees and the most impressive plantation house. The band played music from the gazebo under the light of a golden moon. The scenery was most delightful.

Stuart Kallman served as master of ceremonies for the evening. After the welcome was extended by Junior President Thurston Hicks, Senior President Steve Kallman issued the response. Later in the evening the Junior and Senior Class officers were presented.

Class sponsors who gave their time to help Juniors to have a successful prom were: Mrs. Margaret Glover, Miss Peggy Stanton, Miss Linda Jenkins, Miss Jane Noble, and Mr. Rex Pace.

Juniors, Seniors, and their guests enjoy the atmosphere of "Some Enchanted Evening" as they stand in front of the southern plantation home.

Monogram Club

Student-Faculty Basketball Game

One of the most popular events of the year is the student-faculty basketball game. In this hilarious game the teachers match their skill against the skill of their charges. It is not a matter of technique, but of getting the ball in the basket. In separate games the boys and girls of the Monogram Club challenge the teachers. Sponsored by the Monogram Club, the game is for the purpose of raising money for the club. During the evening cakes are given away to the ones with the lucky ticket stubs. Played on March 16, this game will not soon be forgotten by those who attended the activities.

Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Luper, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Howes, and Mrs. Bunn make their appearance to warm up for the big game.

Mrs. Murphy (in black) makes two points for the faculty.

"Is it going in or not?" Mrs. Luper takes her foul shot as she and her teammates try to outplay the students.

Ruth Edwards offers to help Gregg Tapson to start the car during Sadie Hawkins Week.

Sadie Hawkins Week

An annual affair in which the boys reap the profit is Sadie Hawkins. During this week, the girls don the "pants" as they take the role of gentlemen. The girls ask the boys for dates, pay all the bills connected with the date, and pay all the courtesies to their dates that any "gentleman" would do. As you walk down the halls of H.H.S. during Sadie Hawkins Week, you can see the girls carrying the boys' books and walking with the boys to their classes.

The conclusion of the fun-filled week is a Dogpatch dance. For this affair the students come dressed as typical hillbillies and enjoy a night of country square dancing. The boys and girls with the most original costumes are awarded prizes.

New Students and New Teachers at H. H. S.

During the year new teachers as well as new students have come to Henderson High School. Because they were not here when pictures were taken in the fall, we have allotted a special page for them. Mrs. Vivian Luper of Wilson, N. C., took the place of girls' physical education instructor. Mrs. Elizabeth Bunn of Oxford, N. C. joined the English Department.

Some students have come to H. H. S. from other states, while some have moved to Henderson from other North Carolina towns. Rosemary Studebaker originally lived in West Virginia; and John Storey, in Texas. Carol Alexander moved with her family from Goldsboro; Henry Bunn, from Raleigh; Tim Gee, from Durham; and Vickie Leventis, from Morganton. Randy Hunt has lived in Henderson but previously had attended another school.

These new students have chances to express their ideas in the Bulldogs. We extend our welcome to these new students and faculty members in the 1964 Pep Pac.

Bus Drivers: Glenn Collins, Betty Davis, Kenneth Roberson, Al Williams

An important part of the school life at Henderson High is that of the bus drivers. Three boys and one girl drove the buses to and from school each day, certain of one thing only: that students arrived at their destinations safely and on time. About 240 students were transported by the school buses. They went to Clark Street, West End, and Rollins Schools. Our bus drivers tried to promote safety and consideration on the highways and at school. They were symbols reminding all motorists to drive carefully and to watch out for the pedestrians. Truly they rendered a great service to our school daily.

While students and teachers were at lunch and after school hours, the maids swept and dusted the rooms. Charlie, the janitor, made necessary repairs, operated the furnace, replaced light bulbs, and maintained the lawn. His "Jack-of-all-trades" ability made the school day run smoothly.

Maids: Beatrice Grant, Fannie Dickens

Dieticians: Mrs. Jimmy Bryan, Mrs. Helen Grissom

A day in the life of Henderson High School would never be complete without the help of the dieticians and cooks. Without them we would surely be at a great loss. Dietician Mrs. Jimmy Bryan, and assistant dietician, Mrs. Helen Grissom, carefully plan each meal every day for 500 people. The cooks work all morning for 180 days preparing these meals. During the three lunch shifts, each lunchroom worker is kept busy preparing and setting food out on the counter for all the hungry students. Before and after the lunch period, the dieticians and cooks busily carry out their various jobs in the lunchroom.

Athletics

Head Football Coach: Wade Stephenson

Assistant Football Coach: Luby Lee Boykin

Athletics play a large roll in the life of Henderson High and its students. There is a great deal of work as well as enjoyment wrapped up in our sports. Football begins as our school year gets under way. This seems to be the most exciting season of our sports year. Secondly comes basketball which consumes a great deal of time and hard work but also creates enjoyment for all.

Then golf and track and baseball follow up to close out our variety of athletics at H. H. S.

Our athletics and participants have in the past and always will present much pleasure and pride to our school and its body. Highly commendable for this are our coaches. We thank them for their efforts and courage.

HENDERSON VS. OXFORD

Friday, September 13, was a very unlucky day for the Bulldogs. In the second game of the season, they lost to the Oxford Wildcats for the first time in ten years. The Bulldogs could not get the ball moving. On the rain-drenched grid-iron, they were defeated by a 12-0 score.

Varsity Coaches: Mr. Boykin and Mr. Stephenson

Varsity Trainer: Robert Harrison

August fifteenth was the day; Memorial field was the place approximately---boys participated in the first practice. Three weeks of hard labor were soon gone. It was time to elect captains. David Hoyle, Ray Wilkins, Pat Sellars, and Jimmy Daniels were chosen to lead.

Each week Coach Stephenson and Coach Boykin put the boys through their paces in practice, and each Friday night the climax came as the boys met the test on the field. The varsity had a 5-5 season while playing two 4-A schools.

HENDERSON VS. EASTERN ALAMANCE

In the first home game of the season, the Bulldogs grabbed their first win by a 26-0 victory over the Eagles. After being defeated by Oxford, the Bulldogs were newly-charged players. They gained 243 yards to the Eagles' 43 yards. No single player could be recognized because it was a whole team's effort.

HENDERSON VS. SOUTHERN DURHAM

The Bulldogs won their second victory of the season with a 26-0 victory over the Rebels. The Bulldogs unleashed a wonderfully aggressive defense and offense. Daniels, Putman, Wilkins, Langston and Clayton carried the pigskin for almost 286 yards. Sellars intercepted a pass, thus dissolving a most serious threat.

HENDERSON VS. ORANGE

The Bulldogs were challenged by the Panthers in the fifth game of the season. The Bulldogs played one of their hardest games in this battle. Jimmy Daniels did an excellent job on ball-handling, with running excelled in by Putman, Wilkins, Clayton, and Mills. The game ended in a 20-0 victory for the Bulldogs.

HENDERSON VS. NORTHERN DURHAM

The first away conference game took the Bulldogs to Northern Durham. Here, they faced the Northern Knights in their Homecoming game. In the second quarter the Bulldogs were down 24-0. They scored 13 points during the third quarter. After scoring another touchdown, time ran out for them. They were defeated 19-24.

HENDERSON VS. CHAPEL HILL

Henderson played Chapel Hill for the Chapel Hill Homecoming. Chapel Hill took the opening kick-off and scored on a fifty yard drive. The Bulldogs could not get clicking. Jimmy Daniel's 26 yard run set up the Bulldogs only score by Ray Wilkins. The Bulldogs were defeated 26-0 by the Chapel Hill Wildcats.

HENDERSON VS. OXFORD

The Bulldogs got their revenge on Oxford by defeating them 20-19 in the second Henderson Vs. Oxford match of the season. Douglas Clayton ran a 92 yard touchdown (for) the opening from kickoff and the Bulldogs were never behind after that.

HENDERSON VS. ROXBORO

The Bulldogs suffered a 34-0 defeat at the hands of a tough Roxboro team. The Bulldogs never gave up. They fought hard to the final gun, but two intercepted passes and a bad kick set up three Roxboro touchdowns.

Let's take a break

HENDERSON VS. WILSON

The last game of the season took place at Wilson. All of the scoring was done in the first five minutes of play. Sherman Newton recovered a kickoff fumble and ran a touchdown, then he kicked the extra point. The Cyclones then started a long drive through which they scored six points. The score still stood at 7-6 when the final gun sounded.

J. V. Football Team

The football future looks good for Henderson. These J. V.'s are now veterans of two seasons. Because of their size and experience, they will be able to give Bulldog Football a real lift. Their record this year was 5-3 and they looked real tough in all of their games. They were coached this year by Mr. Willy Williams, Mr. Lee Boykin, and Mr. Wade Stevenson.

Freshman Team

The Freshman team battled its way through a six game season without a loss. It was coached by Mr. Dave Meekins. The boys played exceptionally well and one of the reasons was the experience gained in the Midget Football program. These boys have made a fine contribution to Henderson football. Here is hoping that they will continue to do as well in the years to come.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

The Puppettes started the season under the coaching of Mrs. Mary Lively. However, the team gained a new coach, Mrs. Vivian Luper, due to Mrs. Lively's resignation. To greet Mrs. Luper was a squad of seven returning let-termen in addition to several very promising new members.

This year's varsity girls' basketball team consists of five Seniors, three Juniors, three Sophomores and two Freshmen. Each of the girls has put forth a great deal of effort this year and the team seems to be one of the best in recent years.

Through vigorous practice sessions, the girls gain valuable experience which enables them to put their best foot forward when facing their opponents.

The basketball season for the Freshman team is one of training and hard work. All the members hope to eventually play on our varsity team.

If the boys now playing Freshman basketball keep up their excellent work, we will have a winning team in the next three years. The Freshman team played a successful season, being undefeated.

The skill and training our Freshmen gained during this year's season will be of greatest value to them in the coming years. With these hard working boys we can look forward to a winning varsity team.

One of the most beneficial organizations in the school is the cheerleaders. Promoting school spirit and encouraging good sportsmanship are only two of the purposes of this group of girls. Sponsoring pep rallies, riding in parades, and selling various articles to raise money for their organization are also part of their responsibility.

THIRD ROW: Legg, Montgomery, Borden. FOURTH

At home games and out-of-town games, they inspired the teams. Their vigorous spirit was not only confined to school, but everywhere they went and in all their activities.

Cheerleaders lead our football team on the field with much pride

Barbara Mabe, Chief; Betsy Montgomery, Kitty Crews, Susan Taylor, Margaret Burwell, Olivia Watkins, Hayden Legg, and Emily Borden pose in position for one of their impressive cheers.

Cheerleaders create school spirit in the students.

At pep rallies, they present pride and enthusiasm.

This year we, the PEP PAC STAFF OF 1964, have thoroughly enjoyed compiling your yearbook of memories. During the year there have been times of happiness and of sorrow, but because of the sincere hope of the staff to bring you, the students of Henderson High School, an annual which completely records your school events, this is the product of our efforts.

Thus we the undersigned place our signatures below to illustrate our desire to please you with this PEP PAC OF 1964.

and kind as you are and you won't need my best wishes, but you've got them anyway.

Best wishes, and love always

Best Wishes to a very sweet, cute girl.

A friend always,
